Meet the Staff – Sarah Schaffer!

Miss Sarah grew up on a pecan farm in Skiatook, Oklahoma, where she started her dance career at age 2.

Sarah studied dance all throughout her senior year of high school. She was a member of a performing and competing showcase group for 8 years. She won numerous dance competitions and received a dance scholarship from the Dupree Dance Convention.

Sarah attended Harding University and received a BBA degree in Marketing.

While at Harding, Sarah was a Spring Sing Director and was in charge of theme development, costume design, and choreography for her sorority. She led her group to 2 first place performances.

Sarah has 24 years of dance experience. She has been teaching dance for the past 12 years. She has also coached dance teams and judged dance team tryouts.

layering the 80's blue eye shadow on her for the winning touch.

Sarah has been married for 4 years. She is a marketing representative for AMI of Waco and is also a business professor at Hill Community College.

This is Sarah's 4th year teaching at JSOD. She teaches Jazz 2, Tap 5, Jazz 5, Teen Jazz, Adult Tap/Jazz, and the JSOD Company.

"Dancing is one of my greatest passions in life!"

Meet a Dance Company Senior – Sam Adair!

Meet Sam Adair – a fun-loving, very disciplined dancer that brings many smiles to her classmates and to younger students’ faces every day!

Sam has been home-schooled her whole life and is a senior this year! Her favorite subject in school is English.

Sam has been dancing for 8 years and has been a member of the JSOD Dance Company for the past 5 years. Her favorite types of dance are lyrical and jazz.

Sam’s favorite dance memory is getting invited to join the JSOD Dance Company and the first time she performed with the Company at Encore and received a platinum award for “Enter Sandman.”

Sam was awarded an All-Around-Scholarship for excellence in ballet, tap, and jazz at the Dance Educators of America (DEA) convention when she was 15 years old!

Sam has been a student assistant for the past few years and this year works with Level 1, Level 3, 5&6 year-olds and preschool classes.

When she’s not at the studio Sam spends a lot of time with her youth group. She is also the Vice President for the Waco District on the Central Texas Leadership Team.

Next year, Sam plans to attend MCC and try out for the MCC Dance Team. Sam would like to transfer to Texas A&M or Stephen F. Austin University after two years at MCC and major in Physical Therapy.

Have a Happy Thanksgiving!
The studio will be closed Nov. 21 – 25.
